Lee County VCB, Greater Fort Myers Chamber extends deadline for Chrysalis Awards
Nominations for honorees in seven categories due Jan. 23

LEE COUNTY, FL – There is still time to nominate a business or an individual for a prestigious Chrysalis Award.

The deadline for nominations for the sixth annual Chrysalis Awards to honor those who have positively impacted the local community has been extended until Jan. 23, 2015.

Award nominations are open to any member of the local business community. Award recipients will be announced at the Celebration of Business & Tourism Awards Luncheon and Trade Show, on April 16 at Harborside Event Center in downtown Fort Myers.

The event, co-produced by the VCB and the chamber and held to commemorate National Travel and Tourism Week, celebrates the value of tourism and the community teamwork critical for sustaining tourism as a major economic engine for the county.

To submit nominations, visit www.leevcb.com Visit the Greater Fort Myers Chamber of Commerce Web site to register or learn more about the event at www.fortmyers.org.
